398 Spadina Ave - Floor Plan

398 Spadina Ave - Neighbourhood Overview

Chinatown is a standout location of culture and experience in Toronto, being the second largest in the entirety of North America second only to New York. It is known for its shops and restaurants that are rich in Asian tradition, showcasing a mixture of old neighbourhood staples and new venues that pay tribute to the area. The streets are filled with pedestrians, aided by the frequent streetcars heading to and from the Spadina TTC station.

The University of Toronto is one of the world's most elite Universities. Its downtown campus is located just North East of 398 Spadina Ave. The downtown campus alone has a student population of 61,690 individuals that heavily contributing to Spadina Avenue's busy pedestrian population.

Kensington Market is known as the most vibrant and diverse neighbourhood in Toronto, making it a popular destination for both tourists and locals. This area is heavy in pedestrian traffic which makes it the perfect location for its array of unique shops and restaurants, live music, street performances, and art installments.

El Mocambo is an example of a neighbourhood staple located 464 Spadina Avenue that gives the area the rich culture it is known for. It is a live music venue that has been open since 1948 and has hosted a number of legends such as the Rolling Stones, Blondie, Jimi Hendrix, Meatloaf, U2, etc.
